1. Overview

React First Ltd provides training programmes that cover the first aid training needs of individuals and groups in both work and leisure environments. React First aims to deliver training of the highest standard and provides qualifications from the UK Regulated Qualifications Framework (RQF) and the Scottish Credit and Qualifications framework (SCQF) as well as bespoke courses using ITC First Awarding Organisation certification. React First also uses MHFA England Associate Instructors to deliver the suite of MHFA England Mental Health First Aid courses.

This charter makes explicit:

- Our service commitment to all of our customers.
- Our level of expectation of the service level required from React First staff and contractors.
- The basis on which customers can provide feedback.
- The timeframe for the delivery of services and delivery of certificates after course completion.

4. Course Delivery and Certification Timeframes

4.1 Delivery of the service will take place on the date or dates agreed between both parties and confirmed on the booking form submitted via the React First website. Bookings are made online via the react first website. At the point of booking clients must read and confirm that they are happy with the booking terms and conditions which are available from the booking form.

4.2 Payment in full is required before the agreed course start date.

4.3 Certificates for candidates who successfully complete the qualification will be issued within 3 weeks of the course end date. The courses delivered by React First are fully assessed and have a minimum number of contact hours, they lead to first aid qualifications. This means that it is possible for a candidate to fail to meet the assessment criteria required to pass the course. Certificates will not be issued to candidates who did not meet the necessary course assessment criteria or who did not attend for the required number of contact hours. No refund will be issued in these instances.
