

The Annexe, NLSSM

The Old Fire Station, Town Hall Approach Road, London, N15 4RX

Lunch

Please bring a packed lunch with you or buy your lunch before the course starts as there is only a short, 30 minute break for lunch.

Getting there:

Tube: Seven Sisters on the Victoria Line

Overground: South Tottenham

Train: The National Express East Anglia services between Liverpool Street and Enfield Town or Cheshunt.

Bus: W4, 41, 73, 123, 149, 230, 259, 279, 318, 341 all stop outside or very near to the college.

Car: Paid parking can be found around the back of the Bernie Grant Art Centre (accessible off Phillip Lane) or at the Tottenham Green Leisure Centre.

Walking from Tube & Train (picture directions available from the NLSSM website)

- On the platform at Seven Sisters underground look for the exit marked "High Road" and "Buses"
- At the top of the escalator/stairs keep left and take Exit 1 to High Road and Buses out of the station
- On exiting the tube station walk straight ahead crossing the road at the traffic lights, there should be a music store on your left and a large Tesco's across the road on your right
- Continue to walk straight ahead, past a large building with red iron railings, you will pass by the college
- Continue keeping left up to where the road splits, this is Town Hall Approach Road
- There is a small park area set in between Town Hall Approach Road and the High Road
- Set slightly back on your left after the college is the Old Fire Station, the building with the large red doors
- There is a set of black gates between the Old Fire Station and the next large building which is the Town Hall
- Walk through the black gates where you will see the 'NLSSM, The Annexe' sign above the single red door, which is the entrance.